RECEPTION TO THE QUEEN

Miss Anna Rose Receives Distinguished
Welcome Home from Topeka.

Some of Those at Reception by Minister and
Mrs. Cooper—The "Roman Mansion" and Its Brilliant Decorations.

Miss Anna Rose, when seated on her real throne in Kansas, had perhaps less occasion for pride than she had last night. In the former case she was a happy selection to grace a stranger's holiday. Here, at the home of a Minister of the Government, she received a hearty welcome home from the best people of the capital of her native country. She was pardonably "all smiles" in recognition of the distinction accorded her above that which prophets receive.

Puapua, the new Roman mansion of Minister H. E. Cooper in Manoa valley, as illuminated for the reception to the returned queen of the Topeka carnival, looked like a veritable creation of Aladdin's lamp. It was a palace of light set up on a hill. Scores of electric lights shone through and upon colored bunting and a profusion of banners and flags hung about the broad arches of the exterior and depending from the ceilings and open roofs of the uniquely novel interior. The effect at a distance could only be compared in brilliancy with that produced by the ice palaces of winter festivals in northern cities. This effect was, however, enhanced by contrast—warm, glowing, variegated colors instead of the deathly white glitter of those icy fabrics.

Mr. and Mrs. Cooper stood at the head of the reception room with Queen Anna, the guest of honor, to receive the people. Miss Rose bore herself with all the grace of a queen regnant, baying a warm handshake and an engaging smile for everybody. For an hour there was a steady movement of guests from the front, who, as they paid their respects to the host and hostess and their proteges, assorted themselves in congenial and ever-changing groups throughout the apartments. Major G. C. Potter and A. St. M. Mackintosh were the ushers.

Among those present were: President and Mrs. S. B. Dole, Minister and Mrs. S. M. Damon, Mr. and Mrs. Harold M. S. Wall, Mr. A. S. Cleghorn, Mr. Wm. G. Irwin, Mr. Paul Neumann, Consul General Sato of Japan and Mrs. Sato, Mrs. S. G. Wilder, Senator and Mrs. McCandless, Professor Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hall, Miss Charlotte Hall, Messrs. W. A. Bowen, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Hatch, Mrs. L. A. Thurston, Mrs. C. Hedemann, Mrs. Kinney, Col. Alfred Whyte, Mr. and Mrs. Parker of Minneapolis, Major McCarthy, Capt. Paul Smith, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Byrd, Mrs. Montana, Miss Emma Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Case, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Atherton, Miss Cartwright, Miss Hyde, Miss Spangbury, Mrs. Gunn, the Misses Boyen, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Paris, Miss Kaufmann, Mr. and Mrs. E. Benner, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Jordan, Miss Jordan, Miss Benner, Dr. W. T. Monsarrat, Dr. A. C. Wall, Major Purdy, U. S. A., Messrs. Geo. P. Castle, Jas. McInerney, Jas. Wilder, T. F. Lansing, W. O. Atwater, W. Horace Wright, A. B. Scrimgeour, W. L. Peterson, A. C. Lovekin, C. F. Wolfe, H. Focke, J. Lightfoot and U. S. A. officers.

The Government band, personally conducted by Captain Berger, was stationed in a pavilion of flags on the town side of the house. This structure all aglow with electric lights was itself one of the most striking objects in the whole beautiful scene. A fine program was played during the reception, and afterward rattling good music, including many popular airs, for the dance. The order of dances was well arranged to suit all fancies.

J. W. Chapman was caterer for an elegant supper.

Admiration of the mansion was heard expressed on all hands, and those likely to be among the best judges of a house were among the most enthusiastic in such expression. Puapua is in fact, as to the first story, just a large, open, stone lanai. Its exterior is a series of wide arches, flat-capped with rounded corners. A broad promenade runs along inside of these arches. In the middle of the structure is a court sunk about a foot with tiled floor, to have a rockery or fernery in its midst.

On one side and in the rear are enclosed the private rooms of the family, the domestic economy quarters, etc. The second floor is divided into airy bedchambers with swinging windows and a snug billiard and smoking room. Beneath the broad windows upstairs, as well as about the court or patio already described, are wide cushioned benches, on which one can take cool and solid comfort. The house is modeled in general upon the homes of Mexican nobility, but modified to suit the slightly variant phases of the Hawaiian climate.

All who had their first view of the Roman mansion last night will want to be asked to come "some more."

Artists Will Depart.

Messrs. Frank McGomas and Myer Blashki the two Australian artists who have been painting the beauty spots of Honolulu are about to leave these shores for America by the Moana. These painters have for some weeks been captivated by the charms of Moanania where they have done some good work. Mr. Blashki has been particularly successful in his pictures of the old brooklet running through the estate and has treated his subjects in a manner which shows the artist enjoying his work and leaves refreshing impression. The work is painted in scheme of green which although very hard to treat is successfully harmonious. Mr. McGomas has done some good water color paintings of the old roadway also an evening effect in oils which is very reposul. He has a very large water color painting of the Manoa Valley painted to the order of Mr. Mott-Smith in which he shows his mastery over his material. Some of this work is now on view at the Pacific Hardware gallery.

The Kickapoo Medicines.

The Kickapoo Indian Company started on a tour of the Islands this morning. Its next stopping place will be Wailua. The company opened here on September 28th and has been the attraction since then. The Kickapoo will be missed, Dr. Hunter, the genial Gen. Bruns and all the rest. The medicines sold by the company have relieved much suffering in Honolulu. The different compounds possess merit. There is such a demand for them that the company has appointed the Hobson Drug Company Ltd. distributing agents for the Islands. Those who wish the medicines can obtain it at the drug store. NEW STEAMSHIP LINE.

The Advance Agent Now Examining the Hawaiian End of the Project.

Colonel Albert Whyte, a long resident attorney of Tacoma, is here as the advance agent of a proposed new line of steamers between Puget Sound and Honolulu, possibly with extensions south and west across the Pacific. It is to be known as the British-American line. The pioneer vessel will be the British steamer Garonne, leaving Seattle on the 15th inst. with a large passenger list.

Colonel Whyte is viewing the ground for traffic arrangements, but he said last night that nothing definite would be done until the arrival of Edward McGinnis, the traffic manager, in the Garonne. The overland connection would be chiefly the Northern Pacific Railway, but business was expected with the other great northern lines.

Two other steamers to be chartered will be under the American flag. Colonel Whyte intimated that, if any difficulty with United States coasting laws arose, the line could easily be made an exclusively American one. He had nothing more to say, excepting that he was going to Hilo by today's steamer.

Milk for Sick Soldiers.

The Dairymen's Association is making strenuous efforts to relieve the sick soldiers at the Military hospital in supplying milk. The Association is refusing new customers and curtailing the wants of old ones in order to help the sick. The association is supplying from twelve to eighteen cans a day to the hospital. Each can contains twelve quarts. This is a large amount to furnish from, under normal conditions, a crowded demand.

BAILEY'S BIKE BITS.

ITEMS OF INTEREST TO BICYCLE RIDERS.

Rubber is very scarce and steadily advancing in price. Bicycles and tubes, also carriage tires, are likely to advance in price, as cents a pair, advance, already on some tires. NO ADVANCE WITH US.

The 21 inch wheel will not take the place of the 24 as advertised by some manufacturer in 99 canvases of various makers has resulted in an estimated loss of from 1 to 2 per cent. "The Cycle Age" says it is a passing fad, like the 20 inch front wheel of a few years ago, and the very low head of this year. Proportionate strength has to be followed out to insure reliability which gains and keeps the popular favor. Bicycles will be decorated, and appearance in 99, studied even by those makers who have held back from using transfers, stripes, etc., the demand is for decoration and Bikes will be ornamented to suit the taste of the purchasers.

BAILEY'S HONOLULU CYCLERY: 23 King Street has good second hand wheels at $15, with new tires $2 to $3. NEW Bicycles, $10 to $15. THIS IS ELECTION DAY

New York and Kansas Boys are Casting Their Ballots.

Kansas Regiment Will Send Back Republican Majority—New Yorkers Almost Solid For Teddy Roosevelt.

Pursuant to the right given them by the general statutes of the State of Kansas, 1897, the troops from that State on the transport Indiana are today registering their votes for the candidates representing the different parties. The section empowering the men to vote is as follows:

Sec. 128. It shall be lawful for qualified electors of Kansas who may on the occurrence of any annual election be absent from their township or ward, employed in the militia or volunteer service of the State or the United States, to vote for county, district or state officers, members of the legislature, and for members of congress, and electors of president and vice president of the United States, at the places where they may be stationed on the day of such election, under regulations hereinafter prescribed.

Up to 1:30 this afternoon 360 votes had been cast. The polls close at sundown and there are nearly 600 men entitled to vote. No intimation could be given as to how the candidates were running but it looks like a sweeping Republican victory.

The Kansas Republican ticket is as follows:

Associate Justice of Supreme Court, William R. Smith.
Congressman at Large, W. J. Bailey.
Governor, W. E. Stanley.
Lieutenant-Governor, H. E. Richter.
Secretary of State, George A. Clark.
Auditor of State, George E. Cole.
State Treasurer, Frank E. Grimes.
Attorney General, A. A. Godard.
State Supt. of Public Instruction, Frank Nelson.
Congressman 2nd District, J. D. Bowersock.
At the New York camp the soldier boys are also voting. It is confidently reported that Teddy Roosevelt will have a big majority in the First New York. Few of the Democrats are voting the straight ticket. They are scratching Van Wyck and voting the rest of the ticket straight.

New York's Republican ticket is as follows:

Governor, Theodore Roosevelt.
Lieutenant Governor, Timothy L. Woodruff.
Secretary of State, John T. McDonough.
Comptroller, William J. Morgan.
State Treasurer, John B. Jaacckel.
Attorney General, John C. Davies.

State Engineer, Edward A. Bond.
Justices of the Supreme Court, Third District, Alphonse T. Clearwater.

Representative in Congress, George N. Southwick.
Senator, Myer Nussbaum.
District Attorney, John T. Cook.
County Clerk, James M. Borthwick.
Coroner, Tansing I. Platt.

Cabinet Council.

At the morning conference of the Executive the matter of Portuguese immigration was canvassed. Long consideration was given to the wharf controversy with the Oahu Railway and Land Company. The question was whether to go to law with the company or await the development of the United States policy regarding navigation improvements. Nothing was decided.

DEATH OF CAPT. FEHLBAHR.

An Honest Man Ends a Long and Honorable Career.

After a protracted illness, caused by the infirmities of a green old age, Captain Frederick Wilhelm Fehlbahr died at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. His title was a double one and on neither side one of courtesy but honorably earned. He was wont to inform acquaintances made in his later years that he wore the appellation as a master mariner before it came to him by promerit on the Honolulu police force.

Captain Fehlbahr was born in Bremen, Germany, March 26, 1826, hence was well up in his seventy-third year at death. He left home at the age of 14 and went to sea as a cabin boy. Three years later at Labanon he first saw the land of his future and final adoption. He took cruises on whalers in the Arctic, off and on, until the early fifties, when he made his home at Labanon. He married Mrs. Margaret Hall of Waimoa, Hawaii, on December 29, 1855, the ceremony being performed in Honolulu by Rev. Samuel C. Damon, pastor of the Bethel and father of Hon. S. M. Damon and Rev. F. W. Damon. Capt. Fehlbahr was engaged in the restaurant business at Labanon for a while, then took up his home at Honolulu. As usual with seafaring men, it took him a long while to be weaned from salt water. His first vessel as a master mariner was the brig Angella, of which he took command in 1858 and sailed her to Germany. His last voyage was in command of the brig Lunalilo, to Tahiti and back in 1870.

Captain Fehlbahr became a Hawaiian citizen on December 19, 1855. He was appointed a captain of the Honolulu police by the late Marshal Parke in 1873. His was a conspicuous figure, large and powerful, about the old station in King street destroyed in the great fire of 1886 just when the new station was ready for occupancy. Newspaper men used to like to go on "raids" with him and Marcos and Mehrtens, who were as famous in their day for good work as Parker, Koopa and Chillingworth today. Twice Captain Fehlbahr was bailiff of the higher courts, the second time until gentle paralysis laid him aside a year or two ago. Chief Justice Judd and associates had a high regard for the veteran officer. It is recalled that on the captain's sixtieth birthday, the Chief Justice in offering congratulations paid him a warm tribute for his exemplary conduct as a man. When finally he had to lay down the mace, the vibrant tone of his "On yez! On yez!" were sadly missed in the courtroom echoes.

Stalwart, upright, the incarnation of honor and fidelity, and withal possessing to the last a boying gentility of manner, like Captain Fehlbahr all in all, it will be long before we look upon the like of him again.

The funeral will be held from the Catholic cathedral at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Marshal Brown will see that due honor is paid to the memory of the good and faithful officer.

C. K. Brown, Geo. Lewis and John Padekin are young Hawaiians who have joined the United States forces for Manila.
